A. PREAMBLE:

The Board of Directors, acting upon recommendation of Audit Committee of the Company ("the Committee"), has adopted the policy considering the requirements of Companies Act 2013 read with Rules made there under and Regulation 23 of Securities and Exchange Board of India (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 ("SEBI (LODR) Regulations") on materiality of Related Party Transactions ("RPTs") and also on dealing with RPTs which consists of a need for proper identification, conduct and documentation of the RPTs along with the Industry Standards on "Minimum information to be provided for Review of the Audit Committee and Shareholders for Approval of Related Party Transaction (RPT)" ("Industry Standards") to ensure that the Audit Committee and the shareholders have relevant data to assess the transaction's nature, terms, and potential impact on the Company and to facilitate informed decision-making.

B. APPLICABILITY:

This Policy applies to transactions between the Company and one or more of its Related Parties. It provides a framework for governance and reporting of Related Party Transactions including material transactions.

The Policy will be applicable to the Company effective January 28, 2021.

Amendments, from time to time, to the Policy, if any, shall be considered by the Board based on the recommendations of the Audit Committee.

C. OBJECTIVES OF THE POLICY:

The changes carried out through Companies Act, 2013, SEBI (LODR) Regulations and Industry Standards, pose many requirements on the Company. One such requirement is that the Company is required to formulate a policy on materiality of Related Party Transactions and also on dealing with Related Party Transactions. The objectives of this Policy are set out as follows:

- (a) Identification of the Related Parties
- (b) The materiality threshold for related party transactions
- (c) To ensure due and proper compliance with the applicable provisions followed for approval / ratification and reporting of transactions as applicable, between the Company and any of its Related Parties
- (d) The manner of dealing with the transaction between the Company and its related parties based on the Act, SEBI (LODR) Regulations and any other laws and regulations as may be applicable to the Company.

D. The Related Party Transactions as detailed in Section 188 of the Companies Act 2013 shall further require Board/Shareholder approval, as applicable.

Definitions:

"Act" means the Companies Act, 2013, Rules framed thereunder and any amendments thereto;

"Arm's Length Transaction (ALP)" means a transaction between two related parties that is conducted as if they are unrelated, so that there is no conflict of interest.

The following has been considered to be helpful in concluding whether a transaction is on an arm's length basis or not:

- The transaction is as per the prevailing price list / pricing policy / market price / at the same price (or margin) at which entered into with independent third parties;
- The transaction is in line with third party quotations / bids;
- The transaction is at a price / rate in line with Government guidelines / industry body specifications where relevant
- Taking assistance of an expert – valuation specialist
- Principles under the transfer pricing guidelines (considering whether the pricing would be in line with what would have been charged to an unrelated party, without any conflict of interest)

"Audit Committee" shall mean a committee of Board of Directors of the Company constituted by the Board of Directors of the Company in accordance with Section 177 of the Act and Regulation 18 of Securities and Exchange Board of India (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015.

"Board" means the board of directors of the Company.

"Company" the words "This Company", "The Company", "Company" wherever occur in the policy shall mean "Angel One Limited (formerly known as Angel Broking Limited)".

"Compliance Officer" means "Company Secretary" and/or "Deputy Company Secretary" of the Company.

"Key Managerial Personnel" (KMP) means:

- a) the Chief Executive Officer or the Managing Director or the Manager and in their absence, the Whole Time Director;
- b) the Company Secretary;
- c) the Chief Financial Officer;
- d) such other officer, not more than one level below the directors who is in whole-time employment, designated as KMP by the Board; and
- e) any other person appointed as the KMP by the Board of Directors of the Company;

"Material Related Party Transaction",

means a transaction or series of transactions with a Related Party which, individually or in aggregate with other transactions during a financial year, exceed the thresholds specified under Schedule XII of the SEBI (LODR) Regulations, as determined on the basis of the listed entity's last audited consolidated turnover. Specifically, the thresholds under Schedule XII are as follows:

- If consolidated turnover is up to ₹ 20,000 crore – transactions exceeding 10% of such turnover are material;
- If consolidated turnover is between ₹ 20,001 crore and ₹ 40,000 crore – transactions exceeding ₹ 2,000 crore plus 5% of the amount by which turnover exceeds ₹ 20,000 crore are material;
- If consolidated turnover exceeds ₹ 40,000 crore – transactions exceeding ₹ 3,000 crore plus 2.5% of the amount by which turnover exceeds ₹ 40,000 crore, up to an absolute cap of ₹ 5,000 crore.

Notwithstanding the above, a transaction involving payments made to a related party with respect to brand usage or royalty shall be considered material if the transaction(s) to be entered into individually or taken together with previous transactions during a financial year, exceed five percent of the annual consolidated turnover of the Company as per the last audited financial statements of the Company.

"Materiality Threshold" means limits for related party transactions beyond which the shareholders' approval will be required as specified in Companies Act, 2013 and SEBI (LODR) Regulations and rules thereof and amendments thereto.

'Material Modification' in any approved Related Party Transaction shall mean any deviation of 10/20/25% or more in any of the condition of the Related Party Transactions which have been pre- approved by the Audit Committee of Angel One Limited.

"Ordinary Course of Business" includes but not limited to a term for activities that are necessary, normal, and incidental to the business. These are common practices and customs of commercial transactions. The ordinary course of business covers the usual transactions, customs and practices related to the business. The following factors are indicative of a transaction being in the ordinary course of business:

F. REVIEW AND APPROVAL OF RELATED PARTY TRANSACTION

Approval of related party transactions:

1) Audit Committee

- 1.1 All the transactions which are identified as related party transactions and subsequent material modifications should be pre-approved by the Audit Committee before entering into such transaction. The Audit Committee shall consider all relevant factors while deliberating the related party transactions for its approval.
- 1.2 Only those members of the Audit Committee, who are independent directors, shall approve related party transactions. Any member of the Committee who has a potential interest in any related party transaction will rescue himself and abstain from discussion and voting on the approval of the related party transaction. A related party transaction which is (i) not in the ordinary course of business and/ or
(ii) not at arm's length price, would require approval of the Board of Directors or of shareholders as discussed subsequently.
- 1.3 The Audit Committee may grant omnibus approval for related party transactions which are repetitive in nature and subject to such criteria/conditions as mentioned under SEBI (LODR) Regulations and the Act and such other conditions as it may consider necessary in line with this policy and in the interest of the Company. Such omnibus approval shall be valid for a period not exceeding one year and shall require fresh approval after the expiry of one year.
- 1.4 Audit Committee shall review, on a quarterly basis, the details of related party transactions entered into by the Company or its subsidiary pursuant to the omnibus approval. In connection with any review of a related party transaction, the Committee has authority to modify or waive any procedural requirements of this Policy.
- 1.5 A related party transaction entered into by the Company, which is not under the omnibus approval or otherwise pre-approved by the Committee, will be placed before the Committee for ratification.
- 1.6 Prior approval of Audit Committee and shareholders shall not be required in following cases –

- c. transactions entered into between two wholly-owned subsidiaries of the listed holding company, whose accounts are consolidated with such holding company and placed before the shareholders at the general meeting for approval.
- d. transactions entered into by the listed subsidiary but where the Company is not a party, if regulation 23 and sub-regulation (2) of regulation 15 of the SEBI (LODR) regulations are applicable to a listed subsidiary.

Remuneration and sitting fees paid by the company or its subsidiary to its director, key managerial personnel or senior management, except who is part of promoter or promoter group, shall not require approval of the audit committee provided that the same is not material.

It shall be ensured that minimum information as required under the Companies Act, 2013 and rules made thereunder, SEBI (LODR) Regulations, Industry Standards and SEBI circulars/guidelines issued in connection to RPT is placed before the Audit Committee.

2) Board of Directors

If the Committee determines that a Related Party Transaction should be brought before the Board, or if the Board in any case elects to review any such matter or it is mandatory under any law for Board to approve the Related Party Transaction, then the Board shall consider and approve the Related Party Transaction at a meeting and the considerations set forth below shall apply to the Board's review and approval of the matter, with such modification as may be necessary or appropriate under the circumstances.

In case any related party transactions are referred by the Company to the Board for its approval due to the transaction being:

- (i) not in the ordinary course of business, or
- (ii) not at an arm's length price, the Board will consider such factors as, nature of the transaction, material terms, the manner of determining the pricing and the business rationale for entering into such transaction.

On such consideration, the Board may approve the transaction or may require such modifications to transaction terms as it deems appropriate under the circumstances. Any member of the Board who has any interest in any related party transaction will rescue himself and abstain from discussion and voting on the approval of the related party transaction.

3) Shareholders

If a related party transaction is

- (i) a material transaction as per SEBI (LODR) Regulations or Material modifications thereto, Or
- (ii) not in the ordinary course of business, or not at arm's length price and exceeds certain thresholds prescribed under the Companies Act, 2013; Or
- (iii) of selling, disposing and leasing of assets amounting to more than twenty percent of the assets of the material subsidiary on an aggregate basis during a financial year. Provided that this requirement shall not be applicable if such transaction is entered between two wholly owned subsidiaries of the Company, it shall require prior shareholders' approval as per the requirements of the Companies Act, 2013 and SEBI (LODR) Regulations. In such a case, any member of the Company who is a related party shall not vote on resolution passed for approving such related party transaction.

To approve the related party transactions, Shareholders will be provided with all the relevant/minimum information pertaining to the Related Party Transaction as required under applicable acts, regulations, industry standards, rules and circulars/guidelines.

Provided that the omnibus approval granted by the shareholders for material related party transactions in an annual general meeting shall be valid till the date of the next annual general meeting held within the timelines prescribed under Section 96 of the Companies Act, 2013 or rules, notifications, or circulars issued thereunder from time to time

Provided further that in case of omnibus approvals for material related party transactions, granted by shareholders in general meetings other than annual general meeting, the validity of such omnibus approvals shall not exceed one year from the date of such approval.

4) Subsidiaries

A related party transaction above rupees one crore, whether entered into individually or taken together with previous transactions during a financial year, to which the subsidiary of a listed entity is a party but the listed entity is not a party, shall require prior approval of the audit committee of the listed entity if the value of such transaction, exceeds the lower of the following:

- (i) ten percent of the annual standalone turnover of the subsidiary as per the last audited financial statements of the subsidiary; or

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the following Related Party Transactions shall not require prior approval of Audit Committee or Shareholders, unless the Act or the Code of Conduct of the Company require otherwise:

- i. Transactions entered into between the Company and its wholly owned subsidiary(ies) whose accounts are consolidated with the Company and placed before the shareholders at the general meeting for approval.
- ii. A related party transaction to which the listed subsidiary is a party but the Company is not a party, if regulation 23 and sub-regulation (2) of regulation 15 of these regulations are applicable to such listed subsidiary
- iii. A related party transaction of unlisted subsidiary of listed subsidiary as specified in point ii. above, the prior approval of the audit committee of the listed subsidiary will be suffice.

Standing Pre-Approval / Omnibus approval by Audit Committee:

In the case of frequent / regular / repetitive transactions which are in the normal course of business of the Company, the Audit Committee may grant standing pre-approval / omnibus approval to be entered into by the Company or its subsidiary. While granting the approval, the Audit Committee shall satisfy itself of the need for the omnibus approval and that same is in the interest of the Company. The omnibus approval shall specify the following:

- a) Name of the related party and nature of relationship with the related party;
- b) Nature of the transaction
- c) Period of the transaction
- d) Maximum amount of the transactions that can be entered into
- e) Nature, material terms and conditions, monetary values and particulars of the contract or arrangement
- f) Indicative base price / current contracted price and formula for variation in price, if any
- g) Whether the transaction is at arm's length or not;
- h) such other conditions as may be required to be fulfilled in terms of any amendment(s), notifications(s) or direction(s) or RPT Industry Standards or under the Act/ SEBI (LODR) Regulations or by the Audit Committee.

Such transactions will be deemed to be pre-approved and may not require any further approval of the Audit Committee for each specific transaction unless the price, value or material terms of the contract or arrangement have been varied / amended. Any proposed variations / amendments to these factors shall require prior approval of the Committee.

Further, where the need of the related party transaction cannot be foreseen and all prescribed details are not available, the members of the audit committee of the Company, who are independent directors, may ratify related party transactions within three months from the date of the transaction or in the immediate next meeting of the audit committee, whichever is earlier, subject to the following conditions:

- a) the value of the ratified transaction(s) with a related party, whether entered into individually or taken together, during a financial year shall not exceed rupees one crore.
- b) the transaction is not material as per sub-regulation (1) of this regulation.
- c) rationale for inability to seek prior approval for the transaction shall be placed before the audit committee at the time of seeking ratification.
- d) the details of ratification shall be disclosed along with the disclosures of related party transactions under sub-regulation (9) of this regulation.
- e) any other condition as specified by the audit committee.

Provided that failure to seek ratification of the audit committee shall render the transaction voidable at the option of the Audit Committee and if the transaction is with a related party to any director, or is authorised by any other director, the director(s) concerned shall indemnify the Company against any loss incurred by it.

The Committee shall on a quarterly basis review all omnibus transactions and assess such transactions as entered by the Company or its Subsidiary Company, including the limits of omnibus approval, to ensure that they are in compliance with this Policy. The omnibus approval shall be valid for a period of one year and fresh approval shall be obtained after the expiry of one year.

Material Related Party Transactions and Material Modifications:

All material related party transactions and subsequent "material modifications" as defined by the audit committee under sub-regulation (2) of Regulation 23 of SEBI (LODR) Regulations shall require prior approval of the shareholders through resolution. No related party shall vote to approve such resolutions whether the entity is a related party to the particular transaction or not.

Transactions not 'in the Ordinary Course of business' or not 'at Arm's Length'

Transaction(s) with Related Party(s) not in the ordinary course of business and/or not at arm's length shall require prior approval of the Audit Committee as well as the Board and in accordance with the provisions of Section 188 of the Act, SEBI (LODR) regulations and other applicable laws.

Transaction(s) crossing the limits set out Rule 15 of the Companies (Meetings of Board and its Powers) Rules, 2014, as may be amended from time to time, shall require prior approval of the shareholders of the Company in accordance with the procedure set out in Section 188 of the Act.
